

I Know How Judas Felt

I know how Judas felt.
He wanted Jesus all to himself
when that didn't happen,
and the five men
Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and THE ROCK Peter were getting preferential treatment
It really upset him

What was Jesus's problem?
Hadn't he dropped everything to follow the Messiah?
Admittedly he'd taken time to change his substantial bank account into travellers cheques at a decent exchange rate too.
These were now stuffed down the front of his designer boxers, hidden from straying eyes.
A thought had occurred to him that the all seeing Jesus may be aware of this transgression, but dismissed it as too fantastic.
So there was Judas
on the periphery of this holy gang, worrying about his empty unguarded house.
His girlfriend who he hadn't told he was leaving,
Just in case
This son of god thing didn't work out.
As the weeks went by NOT ONE WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT

It became intolerable He'd show them.

I Know How Judas Felt from the Poetry Collection A Life
HM Prison Edinburgh
Bronze Award for Poetry Collection
17K1607